rendezvous —
snowshoes piled high outside the sauna

Sally Biggar

an antiphonal greeting
of one wolf to the others

Mary Kendall

the jury still out on gray
vs grey

Laurie Greer

a little half-
and-half in my tea

M. R. Defbaugh

scarecrows and moons are the best listeners

Dan Campbell

at the autumn gates
who can hear me now

Wendy C. Bialek

an opened sesame seed packet
from India

Betty Shropshire

and as if by magic they fall in love

Marion Clarke

like charmed quarks
their relationship thrives on give and take

Clysta Seney

a boomerang
when skillfully thrown returns

Kanjini Devi

the seniors' tour group photobombed
by an emu

Judt Shrode

“this way
to the performing seals”

Pauline O'Carolan

another round of sumer is icumen in for the solstice moon

Autumn Noelle Hall

a luna moth
revisits my screen door

Jonathan Alderfer

hypnotised
by the mosaic
mask of Tezcatlipoca

Robert Kingston

through haze that balloon girl on the West Bank wall

Lorin Ford

the lightness
of being a cherry blossom

Carmen Sterba

the lucky veleva
catching the true wind

Alison Woolpert
